Meeting Room Rules & Procedures

Fern Ridge Library has two meeting rooms available for public use. Both are intended to further the library's mission by facilitating the exchange of diverse information and ideas.

1. The Konnie Room has a legal capacity of fifty-two (52) persons. It is equipped with tables and chairs, and a sink. It has ready access to public restrooms. Upon request the staff break room is available and may also serve as a green room with a refrigerator, a sink, and facilities for serving coffee and light refreshments (not provided by the District.) The Konnie Room may be used during and after regular library hours. Performers must obtain permission in order to bring in animals not present in a service capacity.

2. The Conference room accommodates smaller groups (10 seated around a table and about 10-12 more seated around the edges of the room). As this room has no independent outside door, it can be used only during library hours. No food or drink is allowed in this room without Directors approval. Service animals only are allowed in this area.

The library has a computer projector, a speaker's podium, a portable chalkboard/bulletin board, a projection screen, an overhead projector, a cd/cassette mini stereo, a PA system with handheld microphone, a video cassette recorder and a 28 inch television. This equipment can be requested for use in either room. Both rooms are equipped with a connection to the Internet via the library's local area network.

The library has a main parking lot with spaces for 22 cars plus 2 handicapped spaces, one of which is van accessible. Overflow parking is available in the north staff parking lot, which has 7 car spaces. There is also additional parking on neighboring streets.

Who may use library meeting rooms?

Meeting room space is primarily reserved for Library District, District-sponsored, Friends of the Library, and Library Foundation activities. In addition, non-profit, civic, and community organizations, or government entities may use meeting room space without charge for non-commercial uses such as meetings, lecture, or similar activities whenever a conflict does not exist with District activities. Such events must be open to the general public to be eligible for free use of the meeting rooms.

Organizations or individuals may use the meeting rooms for commercial activities – which includes selling products or services, fundraising, or events where a fee is charged – for $20 per hour with a three hour ($60) minimum. Commercial organizations may use the meeting rooms without charge for educational and informational purposes at the discretion of the Library Director.

Private residents of the Library District may use the Konnie room for events such as wedding receptions and family reunions. Such use is subject to the same rental fees associated with commercial use ($20/hour; 3 hour minimum).

How much does it cost to use a library meeting room?

The library charges a refundable key and cleaning deposit of $15.00, due at the time the reservation is placed.

There is an hourly rental fee of $20.00 with a 3 hour minimum.

Checks should be made payable to the Fern Ridge Library. If the facility is left in clean, undamaged condition, the deposit can be picked up within 10 days. Any damage or cleaning beyond the deposit will be billed to the user.

Rules on using the Meeting Rooms

Meeting room space will be held until 15 minutes past the scheduled start time. After such time the reservation is effectively cancelled.

It is your responsibility to clean the room before you leave. Check with staff at the time of registration on location of garbage cans and access to cleaning equipment.

Reserving a library meeting room

Reservations may be made by telephone (541) 935-7512 or at the library circulation desk. You may reserve a library meeting room up to 90 days in advance of an event. Recurring events may be scheduled for groups consisting of 5 or more regular attendees.

For a recurring event, the deposit can be extended if the library is notified within 2 working days of the end of the 90 day period. However you will still be required to fill out a new reservation form to extend your time. Sponsors of recurring events must be aware that those events are subject to cancellation if the library needs the room for a library event. Recurring events will be removed from the calendar if two consecutive meeting times go unused.

Reservations for library audio visual equipment, tables and chairs must be made when you book the room.

Groups using the Konnie Room outside of library hours should pick up a key during library hours. Key is to be returned within 24 hours of the end of the event. Failure to return the key results in a loss of deposit.

There is no key access after library hours so it is important to pick up your key during library hours before your event, if it is scheduled to take place during the library's closed hours. Fern Ridge Library has no obligation to obtain a key for a Konnie Room applicant during library closed hours. However, if a staff member is available, a minimum $35 non-refundable fee will apply.

A library staff member will be happy to orient you to the heating and air conditioning & security controls and to answer any questions.
